

Alan S. Toban Grant Application

This grant fund was established by the Association of Illinois Real Estate Educators and is administered by the Illinois Real Estate Educational Foundation.

The Association of Illinois Real Estate Educators

The Association of Illinois Real Estate Educators (AIREE) is a non-profit organization made up of individuals concerned with or interested in real estate education, training, or research. Members come from colleges, universities, private schools, real estate companies, real estate associations and boards, and regulatory agencies. AIREE offers an exchange of information for those involved in every aspect of education and training, from degree programs to on-going education, including sales training, certification and designation programs, from pre-license to post-graduate studies, from consulting to research to publishing. It also includes administrators, instructors, trainers, authors and attorneys.

The Illinois Real Estate Educational Foundation

The Illinois Real Estate Educational Foundation (REEF) is a not-for-profit organization established to aid and promote real estate education throughout Illinois. The Foundation is supported through voluntary contributions from organizations and individuals who recognize the importance of furthering academic experience and training in the Illinois Real Estate industry.

Selection Process

Retain this page for your records.

All of the following must be submitted by April 15th:

- Completed Application
- An essay from the applicant indicating his or her interest in furthering a career as a real estate educator.
- An explanation of the grant's intended use, i.e. advanced-degree programs, real estate educational conferences or conventions.
- Three letters of recommendation, at least one of which must be from a member of the Association of Illinois Real Estate Educators. (Replies from these references are to be sent directly to the Foundation and are considered confidential and will not be revealed to the candidate.)
- Evidence that the applicant is an Illinois licensed pre-license or continuing-education instructor, in real estate and/or appraisal, or serves as a director of education for a real estate organization or school.

The selection of grant recipients will be determined by the AIREE Board of Directors, taking into consideration the items listed above.
